Programme and timings:

1. Ian and Kirsty to finalise timing once entries are in. Judges will be ready for Fri for start at 4pm. Judges meeting 3.45pm
2. First judges need to leave Sun by 3.30pm
3. Catering Fri, not set time for dinner, but food will be available. Dinner time Sat evening – tbc
4. No fancy dress event
5. Futurity class still a number of open question. Mike to contact Ellen Brimble. Breeding group to confirm that the class is happening, and that they will run the event: description of class, paper work, entries, speaker etc. Breeding group to provide structure and rough idea how much time it will take no later than next week.
6. Timing of pace classes still open, to take care that horses are not required to run without sufficient break before the five gait classes.
7. Brochure – Helena will collate it once the full info is available. Content similar to previous brochures. Print-run dependent on total number of entries. Most of the information should be ready by 5th June. Final deadlines to be confirmed. Must include site-map, useful number section might also attract adverts from local businesses, Kirsty to speak to Jemimah
8. Judges and writers: Mike to invite Mic formally to be included as regional judge. Appropriate classes will include pace test and elementary classes, and oval track assessment of track and trail, tack checks. Other trainee
